

Life After H.S.

What Are You Going to Do After Graduation?

1. Planning for life after high schools should begin when you are still in school
2. Going to COLLEGE?
 - Take your ACT or SAT junior year
 - Decide which school you want to go to
 - Find out about financial assistance
 - Talk with a disability counselor
3. Going to WORK?
 - Decide on a career
 - Spend time observing someone already doing the type of job you want to do
 - Find out where you can get job training
4. Start planning if you are going to move out on your own
 - Where are you going to live and how will you pay for it
 - What furniture and house wares will you need
 - What about transportation
5. Remember- it's never too early to start planning- YOUR FUTURE DEPENDS ON IT!!

Kentucky Commission for Children with Special Health Care Needs